

LUND
UNIVERSITY

Lund University's establishment of activities in Science Village

Towards Science Village

The process

- June 2016 MAX IV inaugurated in Science Village
- February 2017 Assignment to develop action plan for Lund University's establishment of activities in Science Village
Result: the Brunnshög Report – 5 scenarios
- April 2018 Continued assignment for development of activities
Result: LU@SVS
- December 2018 University Board decides to initiate establishment of activities

The process

- January 2019 Assignment to develop a proposal for how the University's establishment of research activities is to be initiated
– presented to the University Board in February 2019
- March 2019 Assignment to initiate establishment of activities at Brunnshög
- September 2019 The University Board decides that possibilities for first and second cycle education at Science Village are to be investigated
- December 2019 Assignment to develop a vision for Lunds University's establishment of activities in Science Village
- June 2020 The University Board decides that first and second cycle education is also to be established in Science Village
- September 2020 The vision for LU's establishment of activities in SV is decided
- December 2020 Local programme for procurement to be presented to the University Board – postponed until April 2021

2040 | Lund University in Science Village – how the establishment of activities developed

- Interaction between environments
- Renewal of the University
- Research advances – more research successes
- Interdisciplinary strength
- Inspiring study environments – and a rich student life
- New courses and study programmes

2040 | Lund University in Science Village – how the establishment of activities developed

Visionsbild Science Village. Illustration: White.

SEVEN ARGUMENTS | Lund University's establishment of activities in Science Village

- Utilises the potential of MAX IV, ESS and Science Village
- More research breakthroughs
- Paves the way for others
- External engagement that strengthens the entire University
- Promotes interdisciplinarity
- Strengthens links between education, research and external engagement
- Creates the environments of tomorrow

LUND
UNIVERSITY